

DPS SUSHANT LOK SHINES AS A BEACON OF LITERARY EXCELLENCE AT NATIONAL LITERARY LEADERSHIP AWARD 2024!

Delhi Public School, Sushant Lok, has once again proven its literary prowess by winning the prestigious National Literary Leadership Award at the 2024 National Young Authors' Fair (NYAF). The school also secured the top National, State, and City ranks, reaffirming its position as a leader in creative writing and storytelling.

The grand culmination of NYAF took place on 29 March 2025, featuring an illustrious awards ceremony where young authors and schools were honoured across multiple categories, including leadership awards at the city, state, and national levels.

Adding to the grandeur of the occasion, Ms. Smriti Irani, Politician, Social Innovator, and Founder of the Alliance for Global Good, graced the event as the Chief Guest, delivering an inspiring address on the importance of storytelling and creative expression in shaping young minds.

The highlight of the evening was the award presentation by Mr. Ami Dror, Co-founder and President of BriBooks, who felicitated Delhi Public School, Sushant Lok, for its remarkable achievement. Also present at the ceremony was Mr. Bhavin Shah, CEO of Education World, who joined in celebrating the exceptional literary accomplishments of young authors.

Principal, Ms. Tejaswini Katdare, expressed immense pride in the school's young storytellers, commending their dedication and encouraging more students to explore the world of creative writing.
